CONTRACTORS

The services specified in this manual are available for use by exhibitors. However the organisers do not act as an agent for any contractor(s) or subcontractor(s), and can accept no liability in relation to any contract entered into between exhibitors and contractors, or for perceived negligence or default of any such person, their servants or agents.

The Organisers have appointed official contractors in order to control the number of people at the exhibition venue. They are given special privileges; however an exhibitor may appoint their own contractor if they wish. Unless otherwise stated exhibitors are responsible for making their own arrangements for services required. It is the responsibility of all exhibitors to see that their contractors are familiar with the information provided by Full Frontal Expo Pty Ltd. Additional copies of the manual are available upon request.
